

National Public Lands Day

Saturday, September 28, 2013

This year's event is dedicated to Lou Tyler, long-time NPLD volunteer and trails advocate.

Be part of Colorado's biggest, longest-running NPLD event!

Sign up begins at 7 a.m. @Camp Chief Ouray. Buses depart at 7:45 a.m.

- Participate in a family-friendly clean-up day on the Upper Colorado River (sign up early).
- Bring the family to help build a elevated boardwalk and bridge for the Idlewild Trail System.
- Construct a wetlands reroute for the Colorado River Trail near the AA Bar Barn.
- Build turnpikes over wet and muddy sections of the Blizzard Pass Trail.
- Improve the Continental Divide National Scenic Trail between Onahu and Green Mountain in Rocky Mountain National Park.

The day concludes with an appreciation dinner and music by the ACME band!

For more information, please contact:

BJ Duffy
U.S. Forest Service
970-887-4120
bjduffy@fs.fed.us

Maura McKnight
Headwaters Trails Alliance
970-726-1013
hta@headwaterstrails.org

Lend a hand, care for the land!